

Dear Parent;

Your second or third grade child has expressed interest in joining a winter book club at the Center Grove Library Media Center. Book clubs will meet once a week before school. Please select the book club(s) your child will attend along with requested information and return this form to Mrs. Crean as soon as possible. Thanks to a generous PTO grant, we will be able to loan books to the first 10 participants in each club. During book club we will read, discuss the book, and do related activities.

Please Note: For safety reasons, all of Center Grove's main doors are locked in the mornings. Do NOT drop your child off at the front door. Instead, drop them at the doors to the cafeteria. If you go into the main parking lot to the left of the school building, and drive all the way to the back, you'll see the Board of Education office. There are two handicapped parking spaces and several visitor spaces right there – the cafeteria door is right by the handicapped spaces. From there, the children will be able to walk to the library. As a part of this policy, students ONLY will be allowed through the cafeteria doors.

If your child is in Early Birds on book club mornings, please send him or her with a note before the first meeting, explaining that you give permission for that child to leave Early Birds for before-school book club.

January 17, 24, 31	Andy Shane, Hero At Last Jennifer Richard Jacobsen	There are two things Andy Shane wants more than anything — to win the contest for best-decorated bike in the parade, and . . . to be a hero. He has a great idea for the bike part, although high-strung Dolores is upping the ante with her paper-daisy-covered helmets for her and her cat. But the second goal has Andy stumped, until the parade is in motion and his eagle eyes catch the reason why the drum corps has suddenly thrown the marchers out of whack. Pass the baton to a lovably low-key hero as he saves the day in another adventure for early chapter-book readers.
February 7, 14, 21, 28	Ivy and Bean, book 1 Annie Barrows	The moment they saw each other, Bean and Ivy knew they wouldn't be friends. But when Bean plays a joke on her sister, Nancy, and has to quickly hide and Ivy comes to the rescue, proving that sometimes the best of friends are people never meant to like each other. Vibrant characters and lots of humor make this a charming and addictive introduction to the Ivy and Bean Book Series.
March 6, 13, 20, 27	EllRay Jakes is Not a Chicken! Sally Warner	EllRay Jakes is tired of being bullied by fellow classmate Jared Matthews. But when EllRay tries to defend himself, he winds up in trouble. Then his dad offers him a deal: If he stays out of trouble for one week, they'll go to Disneyland! EllRay says he can do it. But saying it and doing it are two very different things.
